

THE BEECHWOOD SCHOOL

March Newsletter 2020

Thank you to all the parents for sending in your child's valentines and for the Valentine's Day party treats.

March will begin with Dr. Seuss week as we celebrate his birthday. We will be reading some of our favorite Dr. Seuss books. The book of the month for March will be Green Eggs and Ham.

The Beechwood School will be celebrating National Read Across America with The Very Hungry Caterpillar reading project. More Information will follow.

Conferences begin the week of March 16th, please see the signup sheet in the hallway.

Tuesday March 17th is St. Patrick's Day, don't forget to wear your green as we paint rainbows, make shamrocks and try to catch a Leprechaun.

We will also be busy starting our Art Show Projects "Under the Sea" this month as we learn about ocean and sea creatures.

Thank you,
Mrs. Dee and Miss Colleen
